
Name the Tug competition

Terms and conditions

28 May 2020

Members of the public are invited to suggest names for Ports of Auckland's new electric tugboat to be in with a chance of winning a $1,000 and a ride on the new e-tug.

Entries will close at 5.00pm on Wednesday 3 June 2020.

Entrants are required to fully complete the official entry form on the website, including providing a unique name for the e-tug and may enter the competition as many times as they wish. By completing the entry form, entrants acknowledge they accept these terms and conditions.

A shortlist of up to five names will be chosen by Ports of Auckland, ensuring they are appropriate, fit for purpose and can easily understood over marine radio by ship's crew. If more than one entrant suggests the same names, the entry going forward to the shortlist will be chosen at random by coin-toss or similar. The shortlisted names will then be put to the public vote via the Ports of Auckland Facebook page. The decision will be final, and no correspondence will be entered into.

The winner will be the shortlisted entry which receives the most public votes. The winner will be announced via the Ports of Auckland Facebook page on or before 30 June 2020.

Ports of Auckland reserves the right to name the tug the name suggested by the winner but is not obliged to do so.

Ports of Auckland will pay for the delivery of the cash prize (in the form of a Prezy Card) to a New Zealand address.

The ride on the e-tug will be for the winner and up to three guests. The ride must be done from the Ports of Auckland. The winner must make their own way to the port and Ports of Auckland will not provide transport or accommodation for the ride. The ride is not transferable. If the winner is under the age of 16, they must be accompanied by a parent or guardian over the age of 16. The winner's ride on the e-tug will be at a mutually convenient date and time, agreed upon between the winner and Ports of Auckland after the e-tug has been received.

Ports of Auckland reserves the right to use the winner's name, age (if under 16), and city or town only for publicity purposes associated with the draw.

If the winner is under 16 years old the prize will be delivered to the winner's parent or guardian listed on the entry form.

If the winner cannot be contacted by the promoter within two weeks of the prize draw the prize may be redrawn at the promoter's discretion.

If the competition prize becomes unavailable (for any reason) the promoters reserve the right to provide the winner with a substitute prize of equivalent value.

Unless entrants opt in to receive latest news updates, Ports of Auckland will destroy their names and contact details within one month of the competition close. No details of any entrant will be passed to a third party.

Neither the Promoter nor any other person or party associated with this promotion shall be liable for any loss or damage whatsoever suffered (including but not limited to indirect or consequential loss) or personal injury suffered or sustained in connection with either participation in this promotion or with any prizes offered.

The promoters are not liable for any failure (for whatever reason) to record an entry into the prize draw.

Employees of Ports of Auckland and its agencies and their immediate families may enter the competition, but if they win, the full prize amount ($1000) will be donated to a charity of their choice. They will receive a $50 prize and the ride on the e-tug.

The promoters reserve the right to add any promotions or amend these terms and conditions in any way up to the date for closing of entries.

This promotion is in no way sponsored, endorsed or administered by, or associated with, Facebook, and Facebook has no liability whatsoever in connection with this promotion.
